INTERCULTURALITY AND CRISES –COVID 19

November 2020 - September 2021

Project introduction

This project is mainly addressed to CSOs in the youth sector in the EuroMed region, but also to artists, members of the ALF network, international organizations and local populations in order to help preserve the circulation of culture and arts in the region in times of crisis. Indeed, they represent necessary tools for communities and, in particular, for young people, to stimulate their development and promote the values of dialogue and peace among peoples.

Project introduction

This project aims to contribute to the elaboration of answers concerning the future of intercultural projects in times of crisis, especially after Covid-19, in order to maintain the circulation of arts and culture in the EuroMed region, the latter representing an essential support for youth and community emancipation.
